Production Ethics

Imagine That is committed to being a responsible trading partner with its suppliers, ensuring that all books and gift products are produced in a manner that adheres to internationally recognised labour principles and laws. We are constantly monitoring the development of new production processes that have an improved performance regarding their impact on the environment, and seek to include these advances in our products. Our paper does not come from pulp sourced from illegal loggers and, where appropriate, we use recycled paper or FSC approved paper subject to client requirements.

Safety First

At Imagine That the issue of safety is taken very seriously. It is our aim to be proactive by liaising with government bodies and trading standards, and we have excellent relationships with UK testing houses. We also have a dedicated full-time safety coordinator, who undertakes and documents full risk assessments on all components included with our titles. After evaluation and where appropriate, the components will be tested to the EN71 and GPS standards. We have an ethical sourcing policy.

SAVE the DAY for Ada May!

BE A HERO! Tip, turn and shake this book to save the day!

Save the Day for Ada May!

Written by Elizabeth Dale

Illustrated by Patrick Corrigan

Max is looking after his little sister, Ada May. What could go wrong? Young heroes will scream with laughter as they tilt, blow, shake, flick and shout at the book to avert catastrophe and save the day for Ada May.

About the author:

Elizabeth Dale is a best-selling author of over 40 books, from picture books to novels for young readers. Based in Sussex, UK, some of her books are inspired by issues she has faced with her own children. Others contain life-affirming morals, or are simply pure fun.

Key Selling Points:

- Tip, twist, tilt, blow, shake and turn the book to save the day ... hilarious fun.
- Interactive book-handling will help to develop fine motor skills and word and picture association.

THE BIG DIG

Sharing leads to an amazing discovery in this charming friendship story.

The Big Dig

Written and illustrated by Sally Garland

When Tig uses a stick to draw in the snow, she notices something strange and interesting sticking out of the ground. Best friends Tig and Tog must learn to share and work together to dig the thing out – and the stick just isn't enough for the job!

About the author:

Sally is inspired by the chaotic, imaginative world of childhood. She has been longlisted for the Kate Greenaway Medal and is a former winner of the Little Rebels Children's Book Award.

Key Selling Points:

- Sally's on-trend retro illustration style is influenced by vintage picture book illustrations from the 50s and 60s.
- A tale of friendship, teamwork and learning to share.

CAT & DOG

Friendship wins the day in this story about two very different animals.

Cat & Dog

Written by Helen Oswald
Illustrated by Zoe Waring

Cat slept in the day. Dog slept at night.
But every evening they met for their daily scrap. After a big argument, they decide to come out at different times ... and they miss each other! A funny tale about accepting others, even when they are different from you.

About the author:
