Production Ethics

Imagine That is committed to being a responsible trading partner with its suppliers, ensuring that all books and gift products are produced in a manner that adheres to internationally recognised labour principles and laws.

We are constantly monitoring the development of new production processes that have an improved performance regarding their impact on the environment, and seek to include these advances in our products. Our paper does not come from pulp sourced from illegal loggers and, where appropriate, we use recycled paper or FSC approved paper subject to client requirements.

Safety First

At Imagine That the issue of safety is taken very seriously. It is our aim to be proactive by liaising with government bodies and trading standards, and we have excellent relationships with UK testing houses. We also have a dedicated full-time safety coordinator, who undertakes and documents full risk assessments on all components included with our titles. After evaluation and where appropriate, the components will be tested to the EN71 and GPS standards. We have an ethical sourcing policy.

Based in the coastal city of The Hague, Netherlands, Maaïke Boot started drawing as soon as she could hold a pencil. Most of Maaïke's drawings begin with a Sharpie or brushes and India ink, with the black and white renderings transformed through Adobe Illustrator. Today her work is mainly seen on handmade products from laptop sleeves to baby shoes to swimwear, not to mention in children's books!

Donut Touch

Written by Seb Davey

Illustrated by Alex Willmore

Mikey the T. rex loves donuts, but he doesn't like sharing. When Mikey's delicious donuts start to disappear one by one, he is too busy worrying about his donut dilemma to see what's right behind him. Will Mikey ever learn to share?

About the illustrator:

UK-born illustrator Alex Willmore is passionate about character design and likes every outcome to have a real sense of fun. Recognition includes being shortlisted for the Sheffield Book Award in 2017 for The New LiBEARian, while AdoraBULL was shortlisted in 2019. Alex's The Runaway Pea has been nominated for the 2020 CILIP Carnegie & Kate Greenaway Medal. He is author/illustrator of It's MY Sausage.

Things I Love by Bear

Written by Susie Linn
Illustrated by Alex Willmore

Bear loves lots of things, like Mommy and Daddy, Grandma and Grandpa, and his best friend Bruno. But there's room in his big bear-y heart for other things too, like wearing his underpants on his head, the funny noise Bruno makes when he has windypops, and eating ice cream and apple pie.

About the author:

Susie Linn graduated from Leeds University, UK, with a degree in Creative Arts, studying art and literature. She began her writing career as an author of children's non-fiction, under another name, later spreading her literary wings to write children's picture storybooks.
